Family Therapy - Behind Closed Doors: Coming Home

Twenty-one year old Daniel has moved back home to live with his mother; unannounced, and they are arguing constantly. Moshe Lang demonstrates his great skill as a therapist by being attentive, empathic, respectful, collaborative, neutral and, above all, human.

CAPAV members, colleagues, friends and family members are privileged to have Moshe Lang share with us the benefit of his nearly 50 years of individual, couple and family counselling. Moshe Lang is one of Australia's best known family therapists. Between 1965 and 1979 he was senior psychologist at the Bouverie Clinic and Director of Training. He is the Director of Williams Road Psychotherapy Centre. He was the Foundation President of the Australian and New Zealand Journal of Family Therapy. He is well known for his workshops and unique teaching style characterized by clarity humour and empathy.
